

Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves. Ensure justice for those being crushed. Yes, speak up for the poor and helpless and see that they get justice.

The Greatest Commandment - Mark 12:28-34

A Kids Book about Racism - by Jelani Memory

I wonder why is it important for God's people to speak up for those who are not treated fairly?

I wonder why is God's greatest commandment to love God and to love people?

I wonder why it is sometimes hard for us to accept people who are different than we are?

I wonder how God feels when he sees people of color treated differently because of the color of their skin?

I wonder how you feel when you see people of color treated differently because of the color of their skin?

I wonder what you know about racism?

It's all about L-O-V-E

Make a mobile or poster reminding you of God's Greatest Commandment. Hang it somewhere in your house where you can see it everyday so it helps your family learn the words of Mark 12:29-31

Jesus said, "The most important commandment is this: Listen O Israel! The Lord our God is the one and only Lord. And you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind and all your strength. The second is equally important: Love your neighbor and yourself. No other commandment is greater than these."
