

The Israelites in Egypt and the Birth of Moses - Exodus 1-2:10

I wonder...

- I wonder why Pharaoh didn't remember Joseph?
- I wonder why he was so afraid of the Israelite people?
- I wonder why he thought it was ok to kill the Hebrew baby boys?
- I wonder how the Hebrew people were able to survive the cruelty of slavery and the actions of Pharaoh?
- I wonder why God was silent while God's people were being mistreated?
- I wonder how Moses' mother came up with the plan to put her baby in the river? I wonder what she hoped would happen?
- I wonder if she expected the Princess to adopt her baby?
- I wonder how she had the courage to let her baby go live in Pharaoh's family?
- I wonder how the princess had the courage to adopt a Hebrew baby?
- I wonder what Pharaoh thought about baby Moses?
- I wonder what it was like for Moses to grow up as a prince of Egypt?
- I wonder what you think is the most important part of this story?

Good Things Happen, Bad Things Happen

One thing we learn from Moses' life is that God is always with us, no matter what is happening!

“Good things happen, bad things happen, but God is always working.”

What do you think when you hear this statement? How does it make you feel? Do you agree? How do we know God is always working?

Read Romans 8:28

“We know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.”

What do you think this verse means?

Fill in the Blank

What are some other ways that you can finish the phrase?

“Good things happen, bad things happen, but God is always _____.”

Can you think of a time when something hard or bad happened, but you were still able to know that God was working in your life in spite of what was happening?
